Location & working model

On-site at EASY-CERT group offices in Austria or Switzerland, with flexibility for partial remote work.

Key Responsibilities:

- Lead internal and external projects that operate within our established standards.
- Manage project timelines, deliverables, and priorities to ensure on-time, high-quality results.
- Act as a bridge between business development and operational teams, ensuring seamless project execution.
- Translate technical and functional requirements into actionable solutions, collaborating closely with IT and other teams
- Support new projects from early onboarding through registration, validation, and verification processes within the framework of Carbon Standards International.
- Serve as a key point of contact for project partners, providing technical and expert guidance regarding CDR solutions within the CSI framework.
- Contribute to the development of concepts, operational processes, and system solutions.
- Represent the company in operational project groups.
- Communication with customers to enable project success

Your profile

- Bachelor's degree in climate-related fields or CDR work experience
- Strong project management and coordination skills (at least 5 years experience).
- Ability to lead teams, delegate tasks effectively, and ensure accountability.
- Independent, structured, and results-oriented work style
- Ability to thrive in a dynamic environment.
- Fluency in English and/or German (additional languages a plus).

What We Offer

- An innovative and meaningful role in the evolving Carbon Dioxide Removal (CDR) sector.
- An innovative, motivated, multidisciplinary and supportive team.
- Flexible working hours and the possibility of remote work.
- Modern infrastructure.
- Work with purpose—create positive climate impact together.
- Opportunities for personal and professional growth.
- Competitive salary.
